

Special Interest Day

Wednesday 29th May 2024.

Lecturer Alik Braine will be delivering a series of three linked lectures on the subject of:

'A History of Western European Paintings in 25 Masterpieces'

Timetable

- 10.00 am coffee/tea and biscuits
- 10.45 am first lecture
- 11.45 am approx 10 minute break
- 12.00 pm second lecture
- 1.00 pm Q and A session for the morning sessions
- 1.15 pm Lunch
This will consist of a selection of sandwiches and home-made cakes, accompanied by wine or soft drinks and coffee/tea
- 2.00 pm Final lecture
- 3.00 pm Final Q and A for the day
- 3.15 pm End of SID

This promises to be an informative and enjoyable day.

The cost of the day is retained at £30 per person, all inclusive.

This event will be first sold via email booking at tasww.bookings@gmail.com and subsequently at the lecture on Wednesday 15th May.

Payment details will be emailed to you when your place is confirmed. For bookings made in the village hall at the lecture, we would ask you to either pay online immediately after the lecture, or pay by cheque.

When you make your booking, please provide us with any dietary requirements you may have.

Booking a place and agreement to pay by BACS will be considered to be a firm booking and non-refundable except in exceptional circumstances.

We look forward to a wonderful day.